

The Convention Called for Wednesday, July 19th—Election of Delegates and the Day on Which It Will Be Done—State Executive Committee—Adopted—Other Business.

Persuant to a call from Hon. L. M. Trammell, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, that body met in the breakfast room of the Kimball house at 2 o'clock p.m., Wednesday, May 18th, and was called to order by the chairman, who stated the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of appointing a time to hold a convention for nominating a governor, state house officers and congressmen at large, and for such other purposes as the body might think for the benefit of the democratic party of the state. The following members were in attendance:

From the State at Large—Thomas W. Grimes, of Columbus, and I. E. Shumate, of Dalton.

First District—R. W. Grubb, of McIntosh county, represented by Evan P. Howell, of Atlanta.

Second District—W. A. Harris, of Worth county, represented by H. H. Cabanis, of Atlanta; Richard H. Hobbs, of Albany.

Third District—John A. Cobb, of Sumter county, represented by W. A. Harris, of Worth county; and George P. Wood, of Pulaski county, by R. A. Bacon, of Atlanta.

Fourth District—J. T. Willis, of Talbot county, by L. S. Trammell, of Columbus; A. D. Abrahams, of Troup.

Fifth District—J. H. Mitchell, of Pike county, represented by J. C. McMichael, of Thomson; W. T. Newman, of Adams.

Sixth District—J. L. Hardeman, of Bibb county, by Albert R. Lamar, of Bibb.

Seventh District—N. J. Tulin, of Polk county, by L. S. Trammell, of Columbus; Arthur H. Gay, of Calhoun.

Eighth District—Wilberforce Daniel, of Richmond county, and F. H. Colley, of Wilkes county.

Ninth District—C. J. Wellborn, of Union county, and T. M. Peeples, of Gwinnett county.

W. A. Harris, secretary of the committee, tendered his resignation of the office, and nominated Mr. Bacon for secretary. His resignation was accepted, and Mr. Bacon elected.

The committee was then ready for the business of the day. Hon. Tyler M. Peeples offered a resolution calling the state nominating convention for the first Wednesday of August.

Mr. Lamar suggested the 29th of June. Mr. Hobbs moved to make it July 12th. Mr. Lamar withdrew his resolution in favor of that proposed by Mr. Hobbs.

Mr. Peeples made a short argument in favor of the time proposed in his resolution. Mr. Howell favored the resolution of Mr. Hobbs.

Mr. Shumate suggested a compromise. Pending the discussion, the following resolution was introduced by Mr. Newman, of Dalton:

Resolved, That a convention of the democratic party of Georgia be called to meet at the city of Atlanta, in the city of Atlanta, at 10 o'clock on the day of July 19th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for governor, attorney general, secretary of state, and state house officers, and congressmen for the state at large.

Resolved further, That each county in the state shall be entitled to double the number of delegates in said convention that it has members in the house of representatives in the state.

The blanks were filled by inserting 12 o'clock, Wednesday, July 19th, as the time for the assembling of the convention, and the resolution as adopted by the committee.

The following resolution was then offered by Mr. Colley, and adopted:

In accordance with the previous action of this committee:

Resolved, That each county in choosing its delegates to the convention be urged to procure and express its desire as to whether the convention shall, in nominating candidates, observe the two-thirds or the majority rule, and the county action through its delegates to the convention.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Cabanis:

Resolved, That we recommend the executive committee of the democratic party in the various counties of the state to have delegates elected to the state convention on the first Tuesday, in July next, by county primary elections, as may be provided by the executive committee.

Mr. Grimes offered the following as a substitute, which was accepted by Mr. Cabanis, and adopted:

Resolved, That it is the mode and manner of selecting delegates to the convention, whether by county primary elections or by county democracy of each county to decide for themselves, and we suggest as the day of the election the first Tuesday of July.

Mr. Grimes also offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the several counties in this state be earnestly urged to the selection of delegates to the nominating convention to select men who they are confident will attend the convention and personally discharge the trust reposed in them, for we deem it unwise and expedient for delegates to transfer their authority to persons not selected by the democracy of the several counties.

We recommend that the county action through its delegates to the convention.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Cabanis:

Resolved, That we profoundly regret the serious illness of the Hon. Benjamin H. Hill, who represents Georgia in the United States senate, and so conspicuous as to command the admiration of the American people, that we will soon be restored to the country in the full vigor of his splendid powers, and that the nation will not be deprived of one of its greatest and so eloquent an advocate.

On motion of Mr. Lamar, the secretary was directed to transmit a copy of the resolution to Senator Hill. Mr. Newman offered a resolution of thanks to the proprietors of the Kimball House for the use of the room, and a resolution that the democratic papers of the state give due publicity to the action of the committee.

Mr. Howell offered a motion that the committee adjourn, to meet at 2 o'clock, on July 19th, unless sooner called together by the chairman. The motion was adopted and the chairman declared the meeting adjourned.

L. A. Bacon, Secretary.

DOWNED BY DON.

Senator Mitchell on the eve of getting up on David Davis' fence.

Special to the Courier-Journal.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Senator Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, is as mad as ever; there has been no such man in the senate since the time of Don Cameron as reported. It is whispered that he has a plan that will be vastly more profitable, as well as agreeable, than that submitted at the white house. The plan is to set up as the balance of power in the senate and have his fun out. It is said that he has to take along a fresh letter of introduction every time he goes to the white house, and then gets shown rapidly through and down stairs again by an under secretary. He is sick of it, and will straddle and balance and be secretly as a senator, to be courted if not loved.

THE FIVE PER CENT LAND BILL.

The Bank Extension Bill in the House—Mr. Hammon's Amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—In the senate a bill appropriating $2,271 to reimburse certain citizens of Henderson, Tenn., for excessive assessments levied upon them by General Grant in 1862, was passed. The five per cent land bill was taken up as unfinished business.

Mr. Saulsbury's amendment prohibiting the states receiving money from applying any of it to pay agents employed to procure it, was modified by Mr. Beck by adding thereto the words, "except this be in accordance with the laws of the state passed after the passage of this act." Adopted. Mr. Morgan offered an amendment which was accepted by the friends of the bill requiring the payment of five per cent to be made in cash instead of bonds. The bill then went over. The bill appropriating fifty thousand dollars for a public building at Greensboro, N. C., was passed; after an executive session the senate adjourned.

THE BANK EXTENSION BILL.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—In the house, on motion of Mr. Wise, of Virginia, a bill was passed changing the boundaries of the 40th collection district of Virginia, and making New Port News a port of entry.

Then resumed consideration of the bank charter extension bill, the pending question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Buckner, of Missouri, reducing the term of which banks may extend their charters from twenty to ten years. The amendment was rejected—yeas 102, nays 116.

Mr. Robertson, of Louisiana, moved to reduce the period to twelve years, and stated that he would avail himself of the latitude allowed to debate. He proceeded to make some remarks about the broken banks of the Mississippi, praising the patriotic message of the president on that subject. He then withdrew his amendment.

MR. HAMMOND'S AMENDMENT.

Mr. Hammond, of Georgia, offered his amendment providing that the jurisdiction for suits hereafter brought by or against any national bank association, except suits between them and the United States, or its officers or agents shall be the same as the jurisdiction for suits brought by or against banks not organized under any law of the United States which do or might do a banking business, where such national banking association may be doing business when such suits may be brought.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment providing that in the organization of any banking association intended to replace any existing association, and retain the name thereof, the holders of stock in the expiring association shall be entitled to preference in the allotment of shares of the new association in proportion to the number of shares held by them respectively in the expiring association. Adopted. Mr. Holman, of Indiana, offered an amendment to the bill, providing that the cost of preparing the plates for such new circulation shall be paid by the association, and all other costs incident to the substitution of such new circulation notes for the old, in addition to the tax now imposed on banking associations by law.

Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Crapo, of Massachusetts, the following amendment was inserted at the end of section 7 of the bill: "And the franchise of such association is hereby extended for the sole purpose of liquidating their affairs until such affairs are finally closed."

(Section 7 has reference to the liquidation of such association which do not avail themselves of the provisions of the act.)

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, offered the following amendment as an additional section to the bill: "That the national banks now organized under the act of July 11, 1862, shall have a capital of $100,000, or less, shall not be required to keep or deposit with the treasurer of the United States, United States bonds in excess of $100,000, or less, and they shall be authorized to reduce their deposit by deposit of lawful money, as provided by law." Adopted. Yeas 102, nays 100.

Mr. Cannon moved to reconsider, and to lay that motion on the table. Mr. Randall demanded the yeas and nays on the latter motion, stating that he hoped the house would traverse the action just taken. The motion to lay the motion to reconsider on the table was agreed to, yeas 111, nays 85.

Without further action the house adjourned.

A LAND GRANT DECISION.

Capture of a Still in Georgia—Fighting Among the Special Inspectors to the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—A report was made to the house to-day from the judiciary committee in the case of a land grant railroad in Michigan, in which the legal points involved in the case of many of the roads involved in the Cobb bill. The railroad was not begun within the time named, and the lands included in the grant were placed in the hands of the government and sold. Afterwards the construction of the road was begun, and on the completion of one section the company selected lands already sold by the government and pre-empted. The judiciary committee holds that the government has the right to declare unearned lands forfeited in this and still similar cases at any time after the expiration of the limit fixed for the completion of the road in passing the act, and that if the road continues the work of construction after the expiration of the time fixed for its completion by the granting act, it does so at the risk of a subsequent forfeiture.

THE BATTLE OF BRAVE COLLECTORS.

The commissioner of internal revenue is advised by Revenue Agent Chapman at Toccoa, Georgia, that he accompanied Deputy Collectors Blodgett and Sheppard into Oconee county last night and captured the still which Deputy Collector Brayton, of South Carolina, his wife, and brought out the still and two illicit distillers.

SAMPLE FRONTIERSMEN.

The Indians bring a report from Harrisburg, Alaska, that the white miners have been fighting among themselves, and a number have been killed. The secretary of the navy has been asked to send the United States steamer Wachusett, to restore order. The collector of customs at Wrangell, Alaska, confirms the report of the fatal quarrelling among the miners.

THE GREENBACK DEVELOPMENT.

The Texas Convention Called—The Pennsylvania Convention.

GALVESTON, May 18.—The Texas Fort Worth state convention has been called to meet in Galveston June 25.

He convention met here to-day with ninety-three delegates attending. Some districts were not represented. The platform was an eight hour business day, and a general platform. A full state ticket was nominated, headed by Thos. A. Armstrong, of Pittsburgh, editor of the Labor Tribune, as the candidate for governor.

Justice harmony prevailed, excepting upon the eight hour plank in the platform. The delegates from the mining and manufacturing districts snubbed at the white house. The plan is to set up as the balance of power in the senate and have his fun out. It is said that he has to take along a fresh letter of introduction every time he goes to the white house, and then gets shown rapidly through and down stairs again by an under secretary. He is sick of it, and will straddle and balance and be secretly as a senator, to be courted if not loved.

THE VIRGINIA EPI-COPALIANS.

Bishop White Assails His Persecution Over the Action of the Council.

NORFOLK, Va., May 18.—At the session of the Episcopal council to-day, Bishop White refused to entertain the question of the division of the diocese. He claimed that under the canons he alone had the right to take the initiative in the matter. Considerable discussion ensued, when the bishop stated that if the council decided to have a meeting of the parishes for the coming year, he would not oppose the action, but he would not support the action, and this was also destroyed by the estimates of the laity favored by it.

THE PENSION ROLLS.

The Largest Sum Ever Appropriated by Any Government.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The pension appropriation bill has been completed by the appropriation committee and will be reported to the house to-day. It appropriates $100,000,000, the largest sum ever appropriated for pensions in one year in the United States or any other country. The amount appropriated for the pension year was $300,000,000, and the estimates of the commissioner were twice that sum, or precisely what the committee has agreed to report. The bill contains several provisions extending the power of the commissioner to examine claims and detect frauds in the service.

ORDAINED BISHOPS

NOW ADDED TO THE SOUTHERN METHODIST BENCH.

Why Dr. Haygood Declined Ordination as a Bishop—His Reply to Henry College—A Change of Church Name Recommended—A Criticism of Some Bible Society Methods.

NASHVILLE, May 18.—The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church south decided not to elect a bishop in place of A. G. Haygood, who was elected on Monday and who declined to be ordained. The committee on revival presented a report recommending a change in the name of the church to Episcopal Methodist church.

Rev. Amos Kendall, of the Mississippi conference, expelled, was remanded for another trial.

A. H. Sutherland, of Texas, presented a resolution, which lays over for consideration, declaring that it is contrary to the principles and policy of the American bible society to teach the peculiar doctrines of any church, and claiming that they teach Calvinism by the publication of a Spanish version of the bible.

The committee adopted a plan for church extension. Dr. Lins Parker, of New Orleans, R. K. Hargrove, of Nashville, J. C. Cranberry, of Nashville, and Dr. Wilson, of Nashville, were ordained bishops of the Southern Methodist church in the presence of 1,000 people at McKendree church this afternoon.

THE LADY IN BLACK.

The Lady in White, and the Man With the Black.

New Haven, May 18.—In the Malley trial to-day Professor George J. Brown, of Sheffield scientific school, testified that Walter Malley had been a pupil in his school and had studied chemistry there. A druggist testified to his record of having sold four ounces of arsenic to Walter Malley in September, 1880, and that Malley also purchased nitric and muriatic acid.

The opening of the session found the Malleys and Blanche Douglas in apparently good spirits. The boys spoke to the deputy sheriff, who escorted them from the jail to the court room, about the beauty of the day, and Blanche Douglas was as smiling as she shook hands with her lawyer and took her customary seat. William E. Hunter, a blacksmith, employed by the Lock, Stow and Wilcox company, of Plainville, Connecticut, brought again into the case the black-and-white man, who was yesterday summoned to the trial by the state.

Rev. Amos Kendall, of the Mississippi conference, expelled, was remanded for another trial.

A. H. ## THE PRESBYTERIANS.

MEETING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY YESTERDAY.

A Look Over the Auditorium of the Church—The Opening Services—Sermon Discussed by the Rev. Dr. R. P. Farris—Moderator of Assembly.

The scene in the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning was of unusual interest. The day without was light and cheery, in consequence of which a large number of ladies were in attendance. Within the building its pleasing proportions and beautiful architecture attracted the favorable attention of all who were present. The pews are arranged from the pulpit amphitheatrically in a semi-circle toward the rear. Filled as all these seats were with the distinguished gentlemen who have been called together by the general Presbyterian assembly, of sober face and grave demeanor, brightened here and there by the presence of elegantly dressed ladies, whose gay colors were in contrast with the clerical black, the scene as viewed from the foot of the pulpit was interesting and pleasing. In looking over the sea of faces thus presented to the eye might be noted many whose names are famous throughout the country, and all of whom are honored at the Presbyterian fireside. Judging the commissioners by states, those from South Carolina, perhaps, more than any other, filled the popular idea of the trim, close-bearded or clean-shaven Presbyterian—the men we picture in our mind's eye when reading of the days of trial in Scotland when resolute men of will as necessary to maintain, as was heart for heart, the rights of the Presbyterian religion and freedom. The Virginians are somewhat less rigorous in appearance, and a trifle inclined toward cosmopolitanism. The Georgians, we all know, are the retiring moderator, and the gentlemen from Kentucky give out the impression of good living—such, for instance, as might be expected from Bowling Green, Paris, or Lexington. Reaching out to the great state of Texas we find an able, athletic, brawny set of men whose strong constitutions can give sufficient support to a fertile and vigorous intellect, and representing a Presbyterianism that has had to struggle with the vicissitudes of frontier life. Beginning with the representatives of the states bordering the Atlantic black rock coast, the old style tie, the close-fitting vest, recall the universal costume of the minister of fifty years ago. As the eye wanders away from the coast, the style loses its uniformity and occasionally a coat, a vest and even a tie of mixed or varied hue tell that their wearers come from the inland and prefer comfort of clothing to the uniform of the minister. Among the gentlemen who attracted attention was Dr. Girardeau, of South Carolina, distinguished for his talents, his wisdom and his personal magnetism. The commanding features of a gentleman from Arkansas recalled a stormy period in the history of the country—it was Ruling Elder C. R. Breckenridge, a son of John C. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, and a gentleman who, by the way, has had a somewhat remarkable history. Rev. Dr. A. P. Smith, of Texas, from his striking resemblance to our Senator Hill, was much noticed by the Georgians present. He is a man who carries the unbounded confidence of his section, and is so positive in his views, and so nearly right in everything he undertakes, as to command the respect of his fellow men. Older people present who had occasion to visit the conference congress at the Georgia state, pointed out the face of Colonel C. F. Collier, of Virginia, by whom also sat W. D. Reynolds of Norfolk, one of the heaviest cotton growers in the world. A familiar name to Georgians was that of Rev. E. C. Gordon, of Montgomery, Presbytery. But there are so many with histories present, that to recount them would be interminable. The assembly, when fully seated, and preparatory to the opening of the session, the assembly had the appearance of a body, which for intelligence, strong marks of character, earnestness of purpose, and cool powers of deliberation, could not be surpassed.

OPENING OF THE ASSEMBLY.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the moderator, Rev. R. P. Farris, D. D., of St. Louis, Missouri, took the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. Wm. Brown, D. D., of Richmond, Virginia, followed by the singing of a portion of the 100th Psalm. Rev. R. K. Smoot, D. D., of Austin, Texas, read from the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians, after which the assembly joined in the singing of the 91st Psalm.

Rev. R. P. Farris, the retiring moderator, taking as his text Matthew xxviii, 6, preached in relation to the present and future of the church. He made many allusions upon Christianity like a rock in the center of the ocean, lashed by the fury of the waves, and yet resisting annihilation, the church of the future. Though persecuted by devils and men, by Jew and Gentile, by social corruption and cancer of Godless learning, which sought its overthrow, it stands to-day as a rock, having for its foundation Jesus of Nazareth. Granting to society its fullest possible measure of success, all its arguments, all its ingenuity, will fail to destroy the church. Fifty men could have saved Solomon, even ten. Notwithstanding that this small number could not be divine, it was not until Lot was safe that the divine vengeance fell upon the hated city, so the church will be saved when the world comes. But the very elements that are being used for the destruction of the church are redounding to its growth. Denying that competition has any progress, the speaker went back to the first half of the eighteenth century, when doubt hung as a black pall over the people and religion seemed to have died. The church, however, and its allies predicted the utter failure of protestantism. The indications of the present day are but a title as compared with the facts of the past reference. An illustration the bishop of Litchfield declared that the Lord's day had become the devil's market day. Political life was saturated with treachery and bribery; fashionable life was corrupt beyond description. The literature of that day presented the moral state of the age in which it was written, as witness the writings of Fielding, Smollett and others. In England and Europe in the United States, Chancellor Kent declared that whenever he met a professional man he expected to meet an infidel. Professor Dwight gives his testimony as to the absence of Christian feeling from Yale college. At Bowdoin college there was but one Christian. As the scholars of the professors. Few the most part they were unbelievers in Boston and throughout New England congregationalism was giving way before unitarianism. The speaker then drew the parallel between this state of affairs which to be an infidel was too common to be noticed, with the present when to be an infidel attracts notoriety. From 1817 to 1850, over 6,000,000 volumes of Paine and Voltaire were sold in the United States. Dueling was popular, unchastity prevalent, and sin triumphant. Now over 60 per cent of the college students are under positive Christian government. The speaker then drew a line between honest skepticism and the unreasoning unbelief which does exist at present—the ingenuities which indulges in blind hate, ignorant assertion and ingenious perversion. Those qualities appeal to the baser part of human nature. Then the eloquent passages of the great infidel went plaudits from the mere lovers of rhetoric. The speaker said that in doing so like the pope hurling his bull at the world, they have their labor for their pains. Skepticism need have no Christian unbelief—there should be neither fear nor quaking. Let skepticism come at once into the field of evidence, demanding just such evidence as is called for in other matters and under the same limitations and Christianity will put it to utter rout. There is a pride of learning as of wealth, and when indulged in, the objections it forgets that Christianity is a large matter. It is easy for objections to carry on a guerilla warfare, but to meet such warfare is unsatisfactory. We should not meet a skirmish here and a skirmish there, a matter as insignificant as picking up pins. Let us concentrate the battle. We have a fort—that fort is impregnable by assault. It can be taken, let it be taken. If, as skepticism claims, we are deceived, I shall welcome defeat. We are not deceived; we are able to give the reason of the faith that is in us. We have a fort—it is the resurrection of Jesus Christ. In matters of business men investigate; they satisfy themselves whether the investment would be a safe one. Is the soul worth less than money? Is the whole world a price for it? No. Religion is the essence of reason. Come, now, and let us reason together. The question is not how money can allow a sinner to be lost, but how justice can allow him to be saved. We do not merely believe—we know. The resurrection is the fulcrum of Christian evidence. It has been truly said by an eminent skeptic that "it is upon an empty tomb that the Christians found their church." Even skepticism admits the fact of Christ's existence. Strauss said that the resurrection is either a historical humbug or a verity. We accept the issue in this form; we will meet it as in any other matter of evidence; and we must hold them to the evidence. If Jesus Wall and others admit that Christ existed, in denying his Godhead they take pains to assert their belief in him as a man of the highest type of virtue with every qualification in its perfection. Christ himself has declared that he would rise again—hence he is his own witness. The skeptic presents him as a perfect human character. That makes him a credible witness. We will not allow them, as the rules of evidence do not, to impeach their own witness. The proof of his existence, then, is also the proof of his resurrection. The speaker also introduced the apostle Paul as a witness whose testimony in a trial would be unimpeachable. His writings are as well authenticated as the writings of any other ancient writer. He testifies to the resurrection. The argument, then, is this: Christ was killed. Did he rise? Infidels admit his virtue. He said he would rise. If he did not rise then he was a liar. Where does this leave the skeptic? The speaker then contrasted Christianity with infidelity, whose age of reason was but a reign of terror. If Jesus be not risen there is nothing to love—there is everything to hate. There is no light to show the way, for there is no Christ, and if there be no Christ there is no God, and he who is without God is without hope. Infidelity is despair. But there is a God. Jesus of Nazareth is his son, and because he lives he shall live also. The sermon was listened to with deep attention.

Quite a number of commissioners have as yet failed to arrive, but their names will be given soon as announced.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.
The moderator then announced the first business to be the election of officers. Dr. Bryson, of Huntsville, Alabama, placed in nomination for moderator the name of Rev. R. K. Smoot, D. D., of Austin, Texas. He claimed that Texas had not yet been honored by a seat in the chair, that the state was an empire in its resources; that Dr. Smoot was the pastor at the capital of this vast state; that his talents and capabilities well commended him to the position. The nomination was seconded, and there being no other nominations, Dr. Smoot was elected by acclamation. Dr. Farris, in resigning the chair, made a few remarks which were suitably responded to by Moderator Smoot.

The next business was the election of a temporary clerk, for which office, on nomination by Mr. Veitch, Rev. Francis Mitchell, of Missouri, was elected. This completed the organization of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States for 1882, under the following officers: Moderator, Rev. R. K. Smoot, D. D.; stated clerk, Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D.; permanent clerk, Rev. William Brown, D. D.; temporary clerk, Rev. Francis Mitchell.

Rev. Dr. Smoot then announced the 92d hymn, which was sung by the assembly.

theological course at Danville, Kentucky, in 1880. From the seminary he was called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Bowling Green, where he preached acceptably for sixteen years. In 1876 he removed to Austin, Texas, where he has labored in his chosen field ever since. He was clerk of the general assembly which met in 1873 at Little Rock. He is of stout build, five feet six inches in height; weight, 175 pounds; light hair and light blue eyes. In this connection it would be well to state that the reverend gentleman is the proud husband of a happy wife; having, in early life, married the daughter of Hon. A. W. Graham, at one time chief justice of Kentucky.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.
The police court netted the city $36 yesterday.
Two cases for vagrancy were booked yesterday.

No one has claimed the harness at the station since it was left there by a man named Frank Hempley, who was arrested on a warrant charging him with burglary yesterday.
Jennie Sampson asks for the arrest of Charles Hitch, whom she charges with seduction.

Jack Franks and Molly Tate bruised one another in a pugilistic encounter on Decatur street yesterday.
Mr. Watson, charged with drumming without license, was dismissed by the recorder yesterday morning.

Officer Glover succeeded in convicting Lewis Caldwell, of burglary and carrying concealed weapons yesterday. Lewis got six months.
Maurice Hendrix's shoe shop, on Mitchell street, was entered night before last and robbed of several pairs of old shoes and one pair of new boots.

Mr. Sam Harris's room, on Broad street, was entered yesterday by a thief who got away with a silver watch, a couple of shirts and some other valuables.
Mr. G. S. Prior's grocery store on Peachtree street, was entered night before last by burglars, who made an entrance by breaking open a window in the rear of the store. A dozen boxes of cigars were stolen.

Hank Simmertown, who lives on Luckie street, imbibed too much tangle foot yesterday and fell asleep late last night near the corner of Broad and Grubb streets. While enjoying his nap some friend came along and relieved him of his watch and chain and a small amount of money.

Attempted Robbery.
Just before daylight yesterday morning Policeman Scarborough, who was on duty in the first ward, was started by the cry of murder in Louisa street. Hastening to that locality he met a white man who gave him the name of Chas. Pritchett, and who said two negro men had jumped him upon and attempted to rob, but were driven away by his lusty calls for help.

Superior Court.
The superior court met yesterday at the usual hour, his honor, Judge Hillier, presiding. The jury in the case of Len Atchison, charged with assault with intent to murder, failed to agree and a mistrial was ordered. Charles Holmes was convicted of burglary and sentenced to $50 and costs or nine months. The trial of Simon Payne, charged with cattle stealing, was commenced but was not concluded.

City Court.
In the city court yesterday, Judge Richard H. Clark presiding, the following cases were disposed of: Willis Caldwell, carrying concealed weapons; plea guilty—sentence, $5 or three months. Caldwell also entered a plea of guilty on a charge of larceny from the house, and received an unconditional sentence of six months on the public works. Wm. Sullivan and Frank Williams were tried on a charge of entering a railroad car with intent to steal. They were acquitted.

Stealing Ostrons.
For some time past thieves have been making depredations upon Mr. Lambert's garden in the southern portion of the city and for the purpose of forming their acquaintance, Mr. Lambert last night armed and accented himself in his garden. Soon after dark he discovered a figure gliding about in the onion patch and at once called upon him to surrender, but the call caused the thief to seek safety in flight. Not wishing to lose sight of the nocturnal visitor, Mr. Lambert followed at a rapid pace and after firing two or three shots overtook the fugitive whom he brought to the station house where he gave him the name as Ike Frank. He was booked for larceny.

Procuring Money Under False Pretenses.
The police are now looking for Jim Morgan, a negro man, who is wanted upon a warrant charging him with procuring money under false pretenses. Sarah Hanks, a colored woman, who resides on Payne street, is the complainant. She alleges that Morgan came to her house on Monday last with her son, Charley, and stated that he could procure Charley employment on the State road, but that it would cost ten dollars to have his name placed on the company's roll. After some hesitation, Sarah produced the ten and gave it to her son, with the understanding that it was to be returned if he did not secure the place. After receiving the money, Morgan and young Hanks left the house, but before they had gone far, Morgan induced Hanks to give him the money, and in a few seconds he was out of sight.

A Lively Chase.
Yesterday afternoon Officer Moon, who was on duty in the first ward near the barracks, by failing to capture a man lost a reward of $500. About 1 o'clock the officer and Captain Couch were coming towards the city, and when near Werner's place met a man who showed such a desire to avoid them that their suspicions were aroused, and they started towards him. As soon as the man saw the officers approaching, he took a handkerchief from his pocket and tied it over one eye. He then crossed the street and attempted to pass by, but Officer Moon followed him. Seeing himself pursued, the man broke into a run, but the officer followed him. The chase was a long one and continued for more than a mile. During the chase Officer Moon fired at the fugitive five times. Just after the last shot, he fell to the ground, but regained his feet and started off again, leaving blood in his tracks. Subsequent to the chase, it was ascertained that the fugitive was Fred Kaller, a murderer, for whom there are rewards amounting to $500.

A Lacerated Hand.
About noon yesterday Mr. Tom Bussey, engineer at the Atlanta elevator, met with quite a serious accident which will render him unable to attend to his duties for some time. He was standing beside the engine when a piece of waste caught on the piston rod. Mr. Bussey grabbed at the waste, but it was so firmly wound around the rod that he could not pull it off and before he could let go his hand was drawn between the rod and wheel and terribly lacerated and crushed. The finger bones were badly broken and the flesh torn from the hand. Drs. Ridley, Barnes and Gray were called in and reduced the fractures and put about twenty stitches in the flesh. Mr. Bussey bore the operation with great fortitude.

REAL ESTATE MATTERS.
Mr. Knapp, the real estate agent, sold yesterday four beautiful lots on Washington street, opposite Judge Higby's residence, at auction for $2,500. Lot No. 1 was bought by Chas. D. Woodson for $850; Nos. 2 and 3 for $700 apiece, and No. 4 for $710, by Wm. N. Hawks. At the same time and place, Mr. Knapp also sold four lots on Crumley street and four on Pulliam street. On Crumley street the lots were purchased as follows: No. 5 by Chas. D. Woodson for $253; No. 6, by E. P. Chamberlain, $305; No. 7, by Jno. A. Colvin, $200; No. 8, by Jno. A. Colvin, $210. The four lots on Pulliam street were bought by Isaac H. Haas for $650.

Major Cummings will sell at auction Tuesday next, 5 p. m., through N. R. Fowler, real estate agent, one of the most desirable and centrally located residences in the city—located on the corner of Luckie and Fairlie streets, and bears the number 25. It is a two-story brick, 9 rooms, modern improvements, with gas, water main and fine shade trees in front. The major will have sold at same time and place one of the most desirable residence lots on old Peachtree street, immediately opposite McNabb's and Crussell's property. Both of the above pieces of real estate are first-class, and nothing like perhaps superior has been offered on the market. The major is disposing of this property for the purpose of improving other property in the city.

Major Cummings has sanguine hopes for the future of Atlanta, and firmly believes that we are yet on the lower rounds of the ladder to a brilliant success. His opinion is that the pefalse pretenses. Sarah Hanks, a colored woman, who resides on Payne street, is the complainant. She alleges that Morgan came to her house on Monday last with her son, Charley, and stated that he could procure Charley employment on the State road, but that it would cost ten dollars to have his name placed on the company's roll. After some hesitation, Sarah produced the ten and gave it to her son, with the understanding that it was to be returned if he did not secure the place. After receiving the money, Morgan and young Hanks left the house, but before they had gone far, Morgan induced Hanks to give him the money, and in a few seconds he was out of sight.

First Baptist Sunday School Picnic.
There will be a large picnic to Douglasville next Saturday. The train will leave the passenger depot at 7:30 in the morning. Dr. Sid Holland has consented to go and take his banjo. Colonel Geo. W. Adair, Mayor English, and several other prominent citizens will accompany the First Baptist Sunday school on this picnic. Don't fail to make your arrangements for a pleasant trip over the new road. For particulars see Mr. Green, of the firm of Green & Ransbeck, or Mr. M. C. Kiser, of the firm of M. C. & J. F. Kiser.

Second Baptist Picnic.
The Second Baptist Sunday school will picnic at Stone Mountain to-morrow. Train leaves passenger depot at 8:30 a. m. Adults 50 cents; children 25 cents.

Peachtree Lots at Auction To-day.
Remember Colonel G. W. Adair's sale of Peachtree lots to-day. Call at his office for plat. Free ride on the street cars.

"Don't You Forget It."
No. 25 Luckie street—2-story 9-room Brick House will be sold to the best bidder next Tuesday afternoon, May 23, at 5 o'clock, at the house. Also, at same place, the fine vacant lot on old Peachtree street, just south of North avenue; No. 3 Atwood plat. Plat at my office. N. R. FOWLER, 37 Peachtree St. may19—4dt

FINE FOWLS.
Mr. E. A. Rose, of Cumberland Island, who has had more experience with fine fowls than any man in the south, writes that he has never known a case of cholera or sore head cured until he cured a severe case with Sandine. Sandine is an unfailing remedy for all diseases of the skin of whatever nature. Ask your druggist for a package and give it a trial. ro2 apr23 dtw 7p.

Returned.
W. T. Wilson, the well known Mitchell street sewing machine man, has just returned from an extended trip to the north, taking in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Buffalo and Chicago. We are indebted to him for full diagrams and programmes of the great May music festival now in progress in Cincinnati, O., under leadership of Mr. Theodore Thomas. He was fortunate enough to secure a reserved seat in the Trolley night concert in the great Cincinnati music hall, and heard the celebrated, Madame Materna and Annie Louise Cary and Messrs. Candius and Whitney, supported by the grand chorus of five hundred voices in the requiem of Mozart. Mr. W. went west on business connected with the company he has so long represented, and contemplated a trade with them for their entire Atlanta office, which he will continue in future on his personal account. The company's jobbing trade will be supplied direct from Cleveland factory for future, and they are ready to ship to their trade south now the new high-art light-manufactured machine, which has stood all the tests on the various cotton fabrics so largely used in this section. Mr. Wilson secured his contract to represent the company's interest in the S. S. states, with the wholesale trade, and intends placing the Mitchell Sewing Machine still further in the lead, and will be glad to correspond with merchants who have handled the Davis here in regard to price and terms on the new machine.

Old Point Comfort.
Attention is called to the card of the Hygeia hotel, at Old Point Comfort, Va. The hotel, under the able management of Mr. Harrison Phibbs, is one of the best summer resorts on the coast. The table is well kept and the house is well furnished. Extensive improvements have been made within the last year, while the rates have been reduced from twenty to twenty-five per cent.

Pledge in Office.
Yesterday W. A. Pledge, the new surveyor of the port, was sworn in and assumed the duties of the office. Captain White, who has had charge of the office since Madison Davis left, was relieved and will return to Savannah. Pledge says that he is confident that he will be able to deliver goods here by the 15th of June.

PERSONAL.
Mr. W. T. D. Conner, of Chester, S. C., is in the city. Mr. Conner is related to Colonel J. C. Brumley.
Mr. J. A. Hunt, who travels for Miller's wholesale and retail furniture house on Peachtree, has returned from an extended tour through southwest Georgia.
Dr. Hobbs has returned from one of his mysterious Mr. Hobbs trips.
Mr. Julius L. Brown left yesterday evening for Cincinnati.
Rev. John L. Girardeau, D. D., of Columbia, South Carolina, will preach at the First Presbyterian church to-night at 8 o'clock.
